

廣東省交通運輸廳

This large-scale drawing board displays a comprehensive set of architectural and engineering plans for a transportation project. The central focus is a detailed site plan or layout, flanked by various cross-sections and elevation drawings. The drawing is surrounded by numerous photographs showing different stages of construction, completed infrastructure, and related facilities. The entire drawing is protected by a clear plastic sheet. The board is supported by a wooden frame with metal legs.

